A mounter of the Senate Committee Territories says that this is the present status of the disagreement as to the Springer complete bill: The Conference Committee will report a disagreement, and as to: a new conference. The points of difference are these: The Republicans will not consent that the question of the division of Dalota shall be submitted to popular oto in any Imm. They consider that subject settled. They will not consent to the almission of New Mexico. As to the other points of difference in the bill, the Republicant are not so strenuous.

The Sepate will doubtless refuse to confirm this appointment made in the cidding olitical pressure and the force

. Political pressure and the force of a extreme conservatism have caused the majority of the committee of the Maior Lagrangian to report adversely upon the Australian Bajlot bill. A minerity report towerer, has been made, and vigorous flort play arall to, persuade the [Legislands to reverse the action of the committee — Fosten Vaurnal. he Journal has had some queer com ents on the ballot bill, but the above in tinent charge is the most astonishing statement that has appeared to he co-umns. The Portland Econing Benetic well says: "Of course when the Joneya makes such a statement as that it do not in the least know what it is talking about. The only foundation for the a is in the fact that a majority of the Legislative committee, all the members of which are men of character and intell gence and are perfectly capable, of forr g their own opinions, came to tho, co clasion that the adoption of the ballot bil s nexpedient, and so reported. The extreme care with which the Port land fress avoids noticing the significant statement of the St. John Telegraph that the secret ballot has falled to check bribery in their elections renders lits remarks pout ("dodging" supremely ridiculops One of the principal claims put forthir the interest of the secret ballot is that if will make bribbry impracticable, but appears that this has not been the Cabaian experience. It is now admitted furthermore that "the machinery of the bill would be disproportional to some of the graall towns" and for that reason it is suggosted that the bill be amended so as to apply only to the cities and larger towns in the State. The same objection holds good in the State at large. The pachacry of the bill is cumbersome and would entall upon the people a wholly unicees any expense in the erection and rearrange ment of polling places. With this objection ist least partially admitted by the friends of the fill, and with the testimony of the St. John Telegraph that the score ballot has not proved an effective check to the cylls which it is intended to correct there seems to be excellent reason for th Legislature to shatain the majority repor of the Committee on Legal Affairs by large vote:

The sentiment expressed at the incelling of the Bangor Board of Trade Saturday appeared to be that the time had not yet come to impose upon the people the ad-ditional burdens that would necessarily follow the removal of the State Capital, all Cotton se but in 'view' of the 'agitation' of the question before the present Legislature . no single section of the State should be allowed to camp upon the grounds and that JOHN P.
